

Advance Training Flight

4-12 August 2001

Camp Parks

Reserve Forces Training Area

Dublin, California

HAVE YOU COMPLETED ENCAMPMENT? READ ON!

We've developed a special eight-day course for cadets who have completed their basic encampment, but want additional training before applying for cadet staff. ATF is a school for Flight Commanders, Flight Sergeants and First Sergeants and this year it has a completely redesigned curriculum!

Drill & Ceremonies

Under the direction of the best drill instructors in California Wing, you'll not only learn how to teach drill to a flight of Basic Cadets, you'll practice doing it. You will learn the six-step teaching method and will review every drill command and sequence, including formations. Each ATF student will take turns drilling the flight, enabling them to practice and will get immediate feedback from the instructors on their ability. You'll also learn how to do both marching and drill jodies, how to handle a guideon, and advance innovative drill techniques. If you want to perfect your Drill & Ceremonies skills, to use through your CAP career, ATF is the school for you!

Encampment Training

In order to prepare you be on staff for next years encampment, we'll teach you the role of Flight Commander, Flight Sergeant and First Sergeant—including:

- Encampment Training Model
- Uniform Inspections
- Barrack Inspections
- Mess Hall Procedures
- Memory Work
- Squadron Training Meetings
- Working with Tactical Officers
- Flight Dynamics
- Drill Competition
- Volleyball Competition
- How to lead PT
- Time Management
- Uniform Care and Maintenance
- Review Boards
- Proper use of Element Leaders

What to expect if you attend ATF?

The curriculum for ATF 2001 has been completely rewritten. This is a new course with one objective—Train you to be able to command twenty Basic Cadets at encampment. This is serious business, this course will treat you as if you're a Flight Sergeant from the minute you walk on Post. However, be prepared to work. Daily inspections, classroom instruction followed by practice and critique, followed by more practice. We looking for our next generation of leaders. If you come to ATF, come to be challenged, tested, trained and challenged some more. At the end of the week, you'll go through a mock Encampment Staff Selection Exercise to see if you're truly ready to take command!
